

The Cliff,
near Dundee.

56

Dear Madam
I have the pleasure to inform you that I have the honor to receive your kind letter of the 30th inst.
and in reply to inform you that the welcome news it contains of your repeated visit, my husband joins me in saying that Mr. Proffert Chamber is most heartily at your service, and I am sure it has never had and there was this one more for my wife's sister, let us write a letter as you and on the shore -

Do you remember the medium in Boston -
the one that I thought was too good for me to be so great a benefit to me having been told that such a thing was true to some degrees such as the one about the football which has the immediate cause of Harry's death, Mr. Joy tells me that Mrs. Child has been to the same medium & that Mr. Joy came, she is now quite on the quiet & do know more,

I expect to be in London about the 22nd of May as it is the annual meeting of the British Women's Temperance association. I shall hope not to visit the premises seeing you here perhaps not at the New Cliff or home of 17 years - but at New York - but you shall come to the Cliff & see me & I'm giving the ground and I shall like you to see it. I have invited 200 Templars to have tea on the lawn I hope you will at least give us a few days we have much of interest to show you. I think the trip is